

Using LexisNexis - California News Sources

1. From the library homepage at www.chaffey.edu/library, click on the link labeled "AGent".

2. In the login box, type in your seven-digit Chaffey ID number in the first box, and your birth date in the second box using the format: two numbers for the month, two of the day, and the last two numbers of the year, no spaces or dashes in between the numbers. Then click on the My Account Login button.

Newspapers

3. Click on the Newspapers link in the gray area at the top of the page. LexisNexis is the third database listed in this section. Click to open the database.

4. Click on the link labeled News in the red toolbar near the top of the page. On the next page, click on the tan Sources tab near the top of the page.

5. On the pull-down menu to the right of Country, select United States and wait. A second pull-down menu will appear on the far right. Select California from this list.

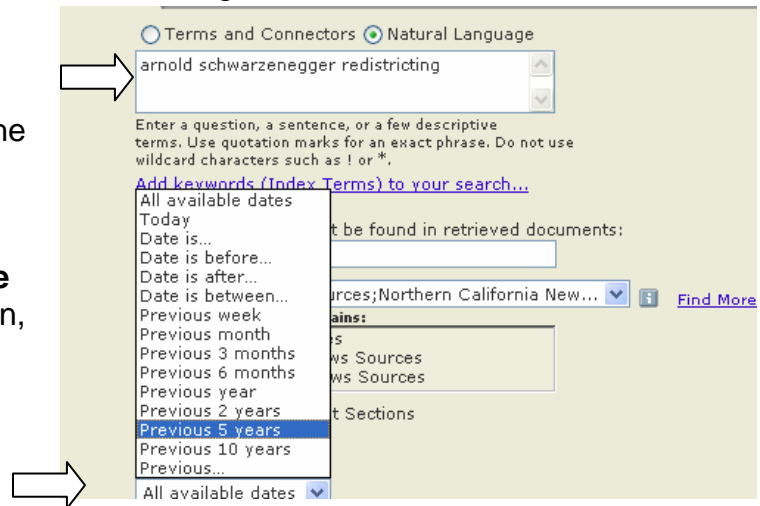

6. In the second part of the page under Publication Type, click on the folder labeled News.

7. Place a check in the boxes in all three of the listings on the left, then click on the red button marked Okay-Continue in the right area of the screen.

8. Type in your search terms in the top box of the tan area. You can also place a date limit on your search by using the pull-down menu to the right of Specify Date near the bottom of the page. Then, click on the red Search button.

Result Groups

9. On the left side of the results page, there is a pull-down menu that can be used to sort the results such as by publication or subject. If you have a large set of results, this is a useful tool for sorting articles into smaller areas.

10. To view an article, click on the title to go to the full-text.

11. To print, email or download the full-text of an article, click on the appropriate icon in the upper right of the page.
